Tool: Stealc

Names	Stealc
Category	Malware
Type	Info stealer
Description	(Cofense) Stealc is a relatively new malware family that was first seen in early 2023. It is known as a copycat information stealer because it has a suite of features that is ostensibly based on VIDAR , Raccoon, Mars, and RedLine stealers. By default, Stealc targets data in web browsers, browser extensions, cryptocurrency applications, and email messaging software.
