Please note that these free tools are provided as-is and without warranty of any kind. The tools may only work with specific ransomware versions, and may not work with versions that were released after a tool was created. Technical support for the tools is available only to customers using a paid Emsisoft product.

AstraLocker is a ransomware based on the leaked Babuk source code, and encrypts files using a modified HC-128 encryption algorithm, and Curve25519. The extension ".Astra" or ".babyk" is appended to files.

Below is an example ransom note "How To Restore Your Files.txt":
